

Guidelines for Committees

01 General

1 § General information

In addition to what is stated in the statutes of the Association, as applicable, and in other guidelines and rules of the procedure of the Association, the activities of the committees and other permanent operators (hereinafter referred to as the committee) of The Association of Economics Students in Turku (later TuKY) are governed by these guidelines. The committee Chairpersons shall ensure the members of the committees are familiar with these statutes.

2 § Functions of the Committees

The committees are the permanent operators of TuKY, which are an essential part of the association's activities. The committees must represent TuKY in their activities and act in the interests of its members. The committees may cooperate with various operators.

The TuKY committees are The Cultural Committee, The Sports Committee, NESU-TuKY, Committee of External Affairs, The Committee for Social and Educational Affairs and Committee for International Affairs.

The Cultural Committee (Kulttis)

The task of The Cultural Committee is to cherish and and respect the traditions of TuKY ry and the Student Union of the Turku School of Economics, and to promote and cherish the cultural aspirations and hobbies of its members. Kulttis offers members the opportunity to participate in cultural events by organizing them themselves and by arranging visits to various cultural sites and events.

Sports Committee (KY-Sport)

The task of KY-Sport is to organize opportunities for members to engage in sports in various forms, both as weekly sport shifts and ad individual events. KY-Sport aims to emphasise the importance of physical activity among its members and to develop the association's physical activity offerings.

NESU-TuKY

NESU-TuKY's task is to foster TuKY's Nordic cooperation by participating in NESU Finland's activities and NESU seminars. NESU-TuKY promotes both the Nordic and the association's own sitz culture. In addition, NESU strives to organize various sitz with different operators.

Committee of External Affairs (Ulkkis)

Guideline for Committees

The task of the Committee of External Affairs is to organize festive events in Monttu, Parkki and the Turku region. In addition, Ulkkis fosters event cooperation with other student organisations in Turku and beyond.

The Committee for Social and Educational Affairs (EVA)

The role of the Committee for Social and Educational Affairs is to oversee the educational and social policy interests of members in the TYY, the University and the Turku School of Economics. The Committee for Social and Educational Affairs does this in cooperation with The Head of Educational Affairs and The Head of Social Affairs and the TuKY subject organizations.

Committee for International Affairs (CIA)

The Committee for International Affairs is responsible for the international activities of the association and for the development of the association's internationality, under the leadership of the Head of International Affairs. The committee carries out both planning and implementation work to further its purpose. The Committee for International Affairs cooperates with international and foreign operators in Turku's student life to promote opportunities for members to gain international experience both in Finland and abroad.

3 § Financial and term of office of the Committees

The financial and term of office of the committees are the same as that of the associations i.e. 1st January to 31st December.

4 § Composition of the Board

The Board of the Committee shall consist of at least a Chairperson and 3-15 other members, who shall be elected at the Autumn Assembly of the Committee or elected by the Board of TuKY based on applications. The committee board shall decide on the method of election and announce the method of election through its own communication channels in good time before the committee's Autumn Assembly. The presidents of the committees are elected at the SYKO of the association. The composition of the other operators and projects is, in contrast to the committees, always selected by the Board of TuKY based on applications. Some positions may also be elected based on commitment to another position of trust or work.

5 § Tasks of the Board

The board is responsible for implementing the committee's action plan, for the day-to-day running of the committee and for representing the committee in its activities.

02 Assemblies

6 § Statutory Assemblies

The committees of TuKY shall hold at least two Assemblies during their term of office, one in the autumn and one in the spring. At the Spring Assembly, the committee board shall present how the committee's action plan will be implemented in the current period. At the autumn meeting, a new committee will be elected, unless the election is based on applications.

7 § Notification of the meeting

Guideline for Committees

69 The Assembly of the committee must be announced through the TuKY's communication 70 channels at least one week before the meeting.

71 8 § Right to speak and attend

72 All members of the association have the right to speak and attend the Assemblies of the 73 committee.

74 9 § Right to vote

75 All ordinary members of the association have the right to vote at the Assemblies of the 76 committee. The right to vote may be exercised only in person, on the spot.

77 10 § Legality and quorum

78 Assemblies of the committee shall be deemed to be in order when notice of them has been 79 given in accordance with chapter 2 article 7 §. The quorum for an Assembly of a committee 80 shall be at least four members of the association present.

81 11 § Chairperson of the Assembly

82 The Chairperson of the Assembly is elected from among the meeting members at the 83 beginning of the meeting. The election is decided by a simple majority of votes.

84 12 § Secretary of the Assembly

85 The secretary of the Assembly is elected from among the members of the meeting at the start 86 of the meeting. The election is decided by a simple majority of votes. The secretary's role is to 87 prepare a reasoned decision record of the meeting and ensure its proper verification.

88 13 § Scrutineers and tellers

89 At the beginning of the meeting, the Chairperson of the meeting shall invite two scrutineers 90 and two possible tellers. The task of the scrutineer is to sign the minutes to ensure that they 91 reflect the proceedings of the meeting.

92 14 § Minutes

93 The minutes of the Assembly of the committee shall be drawn up and shall include a record of 94 the decisions taken at the meeting, together with the reasons for those decisions, the results
95 of the votes cast, any dissenting opinions and the names of those present. The scrutineers 96 elected at the meeting shall examine the minutes and, if they are in conformity with the 97 contents of the meeting, shall sign them as soon as possible after the meeting. The 98 Chairperson and secretary of the meeting must also examine and sign the minutes after they 99 have been examined. The audited minutes of the Assembly shall be forwarded to the 100 committee's email list.

101 03 Board Meetings of the Committee

102 15 § Notification of meetings

Guideline for Committees

103 The meeting of the Board of the committee shall be notified to all members of the Board in due 104 time before the meeting.

105 16 § Right to speak and to be present

106 All members of the Board of Directors of the committee shall have the right to speak and to be 107 present at meetings of the Board of Directors. The committee board may grant special rights 108 to other persons to speak and be present.

109 17 § Voting rights

110 The members of the committee's Governing Board shall have the right to vote at meetings of 111 the committee's Governing Board.

112 18 § Legality and quorum

113 Meetings of the Board of the committee shall be deemed to be in order when notice of them 114 has been given in accordance with Chapter 3, § 15. The quorum for a Board meeting shall be 115 at least half of the members of the Board, including the President or the Vice-President. If the 116 Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson are both absent during an item of business, the Board may 117 elect a temporary Chairperson from among its members for the duration of the item.

118 19 § Chairperson of the Meeting

119 The Chairperson of the board meetings of the section is the Chairperson of the Board of the 120 section. If the Chairperson of the Board is unavailable, the meeting will be led by the Vice 121 Chairperson or another person chosen from the board.

122 20 § Secretary of the Meeting

123 The secretary of the board meetings of the section is the Secretary of the Board of the section.
124 If the Secretary of the Board is unavailable, a person chosen from the board will act as the 125 secretary.

126 The role of the secretary is to prepare a reasoned record of the meeting and ensure its proper 127 verification.

128 21 § Minutes Reviewers and Vote Counters

129 The meeting will elect two minutes reviewers and two possible vote counters from among the 130 members at the beginning of the meeting.

131 The task of the minutes reviewers is to verify with their signature that the minutes of the 132 meeting correspond to the proceedings of the meeting.

133 22 § Minutes

134 A reasoned record of the board meeting is prepared, noting the decisions made during the 135 meeting, with justifications, voting results, any dissenting opinions, and the list of attendees.

136 The minutes reviewers will check the minutes, and if the minutes reflect the meeting's
137 proceedings, they will sign the minutes as soon as possible after the meeting. The Chairperson

Guideline for Committees

138 and secretary must also verify and sign the minutes. The verified minutes must be sent to 139 TuKY's Financial Director along with the financial statements.

140 04 Assembly Regulations

141 23 § Conflict of Interest

142 A member of the board meeting is considered to have a conflict of interest and must recuse 143 themselves from participating in the discussion or decision-making regarding any matter that 144 concerns their personal interests. If there is a disagreement regarding a member's conflict of 145 interest, the decision will be made by a simple majority vote.

146 24 § Elections

147 The board members are elected by direct personal voting, one member at a time. The number 148 of board members will be decided based on the proposal of the incoming Chairperson of the 149 Board.

150 Each candidate must receive an absolute majority of votes to be elected. If no candidate 151 receives an absolute majority in the first round, the two candidates with the most votes will 152 proceed to a second voting round.

153 25 § Voting Method and Voting Order

154 The voting is conducted openly or closed if requested by one (1) meeting member. The voting 155 order is collegial, meaning all proposals are considered against each other in the same vote.
156 The proposal with the most votes wins.

157 26 § Dissenting Opinions

158 A meeting member with voting rights who wishes to present a dissenting opinion must 159 immediately inform the meeting once a decision has been made. Written justifications for the 160 dissenting opinion must be submitted to the secretary within one week of the meeting to be 161 attached to the minutes.

162 05 Finances

163 27 § Committee's Funds and Their Use

164 Since the committees are not independent legal entities but parts of TuKY, the sections do not 165 have their own assets. However, sections are entitled to independently raise and use funds 166 according to TuKY's budget and received guidelines.

167 Funds of the section must be used only for purposes consistent with the committee's 168 objectives and for reasonable compensation.

169 Committees are entitled to their own separate bank account. The TuKY board may grant rights 170 to multiple bank accounts if necessary.

171 Committees are entitled to hold a cash fund in urgent situations. The cash fund must be 172 transferred to the bank account immediately when possible, and a record must be kept of the

Guideline for Committees

- 173 cash transactions. The special characteristics of each section must be taken into account in all 174 financial management.
- 175 28 § Responsibility for Financial Management
- 176 The Chairperson of the Board and the Treasurer are responsible for the financial management 177 of the committee, together with the entire board. TuKY may seek compensation from 178 individual members of the board if it can be shown that a board member has intentionally 179 caused significant financial harm to the committee.
- 180 Committees are responsible for the funds they use. A revenue target has been set for each 181 section in TuKY's budget, which must be met, and the funds must be remitted to TuKY upon 182 request. If the revenue target is not met, the TuKY board will decide on further measures 183 regarding the section.
- 184 29 § Section Accounting
- 185 The Treasurer of the section is responsible for keeping a record of the section's income and 186 expenses. Additionally, the Treasurer is required to prepare the financial statements in 187 accordance with the Accounting Act, other laws and regulations, and TuKY's financial 188 management guidelines. These laws and guidelines are supplemented by instructions from 189 TuKY's Financial Director and the Chairperson of the Financial Committee.
- 190 The Treasurer is also responsible for all other financial management matters, such as payment 191 transactions, and must handle them diligently.
- 192 The section's accounting will be regularly reviewed according to the instructions of TuKY's 193 Financial Director.
- 194 The Treasurer is entitled to receive sufficient guidance and orientation for their role.
- 195 30 § Financial Statements
- 196 The section's financial operations are reported in the financial statements according to the 197 Accounting Act and other laws and regulations, as well as TuKY's financial management 198 guidelines.
- 199 The committee's financial statements will be attached to TuKY's financial statements.
- 200 31 § Receipts
- 201 All financial transactions must have a decision from the section's board and the required
202 documentation by law. The decisions must be recorded in the board meeting minutes.
- 203 32 § Compensation
- 204 Committees may reward their active members reasonably. Compensation must not be 205 monetary or in the form of gifts or gift cards. If the value of the reward exceeds 100 € for a 206 one-time occasion, the matter must be brought to the TuKY board for approval.
- 207 33 § Financial Planning

Guideline for Committees

208 The committee is required to evaluate its activities also from a financial perspective and 209 prepare an annual budget, which the persons responsible for TuKY's finances can review if they 210 wish. The committee should also aim to create event-specific budgets.

211 34 § Respecting Agreements with Partner Companies

212 Committees must adhere to TuKY's agreements with partner companies.

213 In unclear cases, TuKY's Sales Manager will serve as an advisory party. Significant disputes
214 will be resolved, if necessary, in a meeting of the TuKY board.

215 35 § Amendments and Changes

216 Changes to this regulation can only be made by the decision of the association's meeting.

217 36 § Entry into Force

218 This Regulation was approved at the association's meeting on July 17, 2020.
